

Wayne County Tourism Promotion Committee is happy to announce 2 opportunities for our lodging facilities as well as our retail businesses and restaurants to send employees to learn more about what our great county has to offer in rich history, recreation and superb scenery

Whether you encounter a visitor through work or have an opportunity to interact with people visiting or who are new to the area, we call on you to be an Ambassador of the great things to do here in Wayne County

On Wednesday June 4th we will be offering, free of charge, an opportunity for 25 persons to take a guided bus tour of some of the attractions/places in the Northern Part of Wayne County. The trip includes transportation, refreshments, lunch, lots of brochures and a great discussion led by Tom Kennedy. The trip begins and ends at the Wayne County Historical Society in Honesdale and will be from 8:00 a.m. to approx 5:30 p.m. Itinerary as follows:

Tour of Wayne County Historical Society, Walking Tour of Honesdale, Varden Conservation Area, Waymart Historical Society, Prompton State Park, Pleasant Mt. Fish Hatchery, Calkins Creek Farm.

On Thursday June 19th, the tour will be in the Southern End of Wayne County, again for 25 persons, free of charge. Tour begins and ends at the Pocono Mountains Visitors Center from 8:00 to 5:30. Transportation, refreshments, lunch, brochures and a great discussion led by Tom Kennedy. Itinerary as follows:

PPI Visitors Center and Dam, Canal Park in White Mills, Dorflinger Sanctuary, Hawley Park, Hemlock Hollow Schoolhouse, IceWorks Museum, Lacawac Sanctuary and Greene/Dreher Historical Society.

Reserve your spot soon! Consider sending the “front line” employees that are happy and able to assist the visitor and the resident with ideas of where to spend a great day in Wayne County. RSVP to support@visitwaynecounty.com or at Southern Wayne Chamber of Commerce at 570-689-4199. For additional information or questions, please contact Vicky Botjer, vbotjer@co.wayne.pa.us.
